

OSTERVILLE HISTORICAL SOCIETY & MUSEUM RENTAL PRICES AND POLICY

The museum's unique 2 acre property is a perfect location to host a private party or wedding. The property can accommodate small parties inside or large ones up to 250 people under a tented area.

The Boat Shops on the property can accommodate small parties of up to 60 people inside. Though they are not winterized buildings they can be used from May – September. There are no facilities or kitchen at this site.

The Capt. Jonathan Parker House is smaller and accommodates up to 30 people. However it is winterized and can be rented throughout the year for small gatherings. There is a kitchen area in the Parker house which includes a double-sink, a microwave and a small refrigerator. Limited toilet facilities are located on the second floor.

The grounds of the museum are perfect to host a larger tented event. The tent nestles between the buildings surrounded by a cedar grove. There is plenty of off-street parking; enough to hold 60 cars. Required valet parking will be arranged by the museum and billed at cost.
